The types of cookies on our website are classified developed by the International Chamber of Commerce UK.

Category 1: strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are essential in order to enable you to move around the website and use its features, such as accessing secure areas of the website. Without these cookies services you have asked for, like shopping baskets or e-billing, cannot be provided.

Category 2: performance cookies

These cookies collect information about how visitors use a website, for instance which pages visitors go to most often, and if they get error messages from web pages. These cookies don't collect information that identifies a visitor. All information these cookies collect is aggregated and therefore anonymous. It is only used to improve how a website works.

Category 3: functionality cookies

These cookies allow the website to remember choices and selections you make (such as your user name, language or the region you are in, local weather, traffic news etc...) and provide an enhanced, more personal features to you. When you browse through our website we take it that you agree to allow us to use this type of cookie on your computer. The information these cookies collect may be anonymised and they cannot track your browsing activity on other websites.

Category 4: targeting or advertising cookies

These cookies are used to deliver adverts more relevant to you and your interests They are also used to limit the number of times you see an advertisement as well as help measure the effectiveness of the advertising campaign. They are usually placed by advertising networks with the website operator's permission. They remember that you have visited a website and this information is shared with other organisations such as advertisers. Quite often targeting or advertising cookies will be linked to site functionality provided by the other organisation.

Google Analytics

Google Analytics is a free service offered by Google that generates detailed statistics about the visitors to a website. We use Google Analytics on our website to gather information about how you use the website, as well as your IP address. This information is generated by the cookie, and the information is then sent back to Google. The data about your website is then compiled and analysed via statistical reports, which Google stores.

You can see Google's private policy at: <http://www.google.com/privacypolicy.html>

Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on

To opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics go to: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>

To provide website visitors more choice on how their data is collected by Google Analytics, we have developed the Google Analytics Opt Out Browser Add-on. The add-on instructs the Google Analytics JavaScript not to send any information about the website visit to Google Analytics.

If you want to opt out, download and install the add-on for your current web browser. The Google Analytics Opt Out Browser Add-on is available for Microsoft Internet Explorer, Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, Apple Safari and Opera.
